THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE.

A pretty deer is dear to me,

A hare with downy hair,

A hare with all my heart,

But barely half a heart.

'Tis plain that no one takes a plane

To have a pair of penes.

A rake, though, often takes a rake,

And tears away the tares.

All rays rise thence, time raises all;

And though the whole, hole, whole,

A writ in writing, 'hole' may write

It 'write' and still be wrong.

For 'write' and 'rite' are neither 'right,'

And don't to write belong.

Beer often brings a beer to man,

Coughing a coffin brings,

And too much ale will make us all

As well as some other things.

The person lies who says he lies

When he is not reclining

And when consumptive folks decline

They all decline declining.

A quail don't quail before a storm;

A bough will bow before it;

We cannot ruin the rain at all;

No earthly powers sign over it.

The dyer dyes awhile, then dies;

He dyes the whole, then dies;

Until upon his dying bed

He thinks no more of dying.

A son of Mars mars many a sun;

All days must have their days;

And every knight should pay each night

To him who wields his ways.

'Tis meet they won't, and meet out meat

To feed misfortune's son;

The fair should have on love alone,

Else one cannot be won.

A lass, alas! is sometimes false,

Of faith a maid is made;

Her waist is but a barren waste—

Though stay'd, she is not staid.

The springs under springing, and shoot,

Shoot for ward, one and all;

Though summer kills the flowers it leaves

The leaves to fall in fall.

I would a story here commence,

But you might find it idle;

So let's suppose that we have reached

The tail end of our tale.

Umbrellas with windows are the latest invention.

OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

The head of Rev. Henry Ward

Baecher is level upon the subject of proper observance of Sunday. In a sermon delivered last Sunday he said, that as every house has its best room,

set apart from common uses, so Sunday should be the best room in the week. The shavings and dust of the week should be kept out of it. Sunday should not be a work day, though "if a man walking in his garden on the Sabbath, should see a weed and pull it up, it would not be marked down against him in the Lord's book."

The preacher said he had known ministers, after preaching, not asked to go and dine with a friend from an over-scrupulousness on the part of a parishioner who feared such invitation might break the Lord's day. He was not so scrupulous. Rev. Mr. B. did not think it wrong to write letters home on Sunday, but let all go, and not let the children encounter temptation alone.

Of the much mooted point of Sunday recreation of the poor, Mr. B. said:

"So far as the working classes are concerned, it may be an occasional truth that it is wise to take them out of their dirty, filthy homes, and give them an excursion down the bay or up the river.

Singing birds and beautiful flowers are very pleasant; but stop—give them first moral culture and the means of interpreting these beauties, so that they can see God's handiwork in every flower. I set my face like flint against making Sunday a day of pleasure for the rich man and a day of bondage for the poor man. I wouldn't sign a petition against running the cars on Sunday. If there is any sin in it, I think that it is just as bad to ride in a carriage to church as in a horse car.

The prevalent idea of the Sabbath is that you may not do something. I remember in my childhood, at our home in Litchfield, how often upon the Sabbath I would see something to laugh at, and I would laugh. "Henry, mother would say, (as good a woman as ever lived), "Henry, you mustn't laugh." "Why not?" "Because it is Sunday." And I would stand at the western window, with my brother

Charles, and watching the slowly declining sun, would nudge him and say,

"Charlie, Sunday is most gone." And my mother would remark, "Henry, you ought not to wish that Sunday would be through." But I was glad when it was through; it hadn't made me in love with it. It was a restrictive day to me, a perpetual pruning day. Oh, that catechism that I couldn't learn,

didn't learn, and can't say even now.

We are a little suspicious that our member of congress, Mr. Ambler, voted on the wrong side, although in the majority, on the question of abolishing the income tax. Perhaps it is not quite time yet to do away with this law, but a great many people are in favor of its removal or extermination, for they are daily looking upon it as more odious and less needed. Once there may have been occasion for such a law, but now it is not regarded as necessary, by many, and the longer it runs the more odious it becomes. Yet our congressmen should know more than we do about such things.

The president is about to make a change in the cabinet, Mr. Hoar, of Massachusetts, having resigned his place. The name of Mr. Ackerman, of Georgia, has been suggested, but he has not yet been confirmed by the senate because he was on the wrong side during the rebellion, but now acquiesces in the result of the war. Before he can be confirmed congress must remove the disabilities under which he labors. He is said to be a competent man for the place, of attorney general.

Considerable excitement has lately been occasioned at Lynn, Mass., in consequence of one of the large shoe manufacturing establishments of that place engaging and employing quite a force of Chinamen as shoemakers. This comes in consequence of what is called the St. Crispin association (a secret society or union of Shoemakers), which seems disposed to keep up the prices of labor—each making from $3 $6 a day. The Chinamen, it is expected, will labor for about 70 cents a day. But they have to be taught the art and mystery of making shoes, for they know nothing of the trade. A writer in the N. Y. Tribune says they are learning rapidly, as they are great imitators, and are well treated by the people. Their talk is all Chinese—not a word of English can they understand—but they may learn. It is an experiment, and time will test its feasibility.

Efforts are continuing to be made to abolish the franking privilege, but thus far no decisive action has been had. A motion in favor of doing away this abuse was lost on last Saturday in the senate by a vote of 16 to 30. They will have to come to it yet.

The following valuable article is taken from the last Rep. & Rep. of Canton, and we reproduce it for the benefit of our readers as well worthy their attention.

A PIONEER MANUFACTURER.

MR. EDITOR:—Seeing the new Russell shops not being built in Canton the other day I am reminded of an incident that may interest your readers. Prior to 1839 the late Mr. C. M. Russell was a journeyman carpenter, being at one time employed in the erection of the American Hotel, in Cleveland. It was in that year that he started the Thresher Works in Massillon, which have grown to such immense proportions. I well remember the old, blind, gray horse which furnished the sole power; for Mr. Russell and myself worked side by side in the same shop. The first year six machines were made. At first Hart & Brown furnished the castings. Mr. Russell being somewhat embarrassed at the start, and not paying as promptly as Mr. Hart desired, the latter one day notified him sharply that he could have no more castings without ready pay. Mr. Russell became excited and said, "I will make my own castings and I'll dig the grave of Hart & Brown, foundrymen, right here." Whether he made good his promise it is not necessary to say.

As an example of Mr. Russell's foresight and perseverance I remember this: He, at one time became a candidate for county commissioner. I one day inquired of him why he ran for an office of such small consequence. He explained to me that the Ohio & Indiana railroad owed his establishment about $30,000, but was unable to pay; that if the Ohio & Pennsylvania and Ohio & Indiana roads could be consolidated, the railroad would become a prosperous and paying property; that Stark county, Ohio was entitled to one director; and that he desired to be elected commissioner as a stepping stone to being elected director, and that as such director he would be in a position to urge the consolidation with effect. He was elected commissioner, then railroad director, when his object was successfully accomplished in the organization of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad company, the career of which corporation has fully justified his predictions.

But for the offense administered by Hart there would probably be to day no such establishment in existence as Russell & Co's; and but for his success in being elected county commissioner, there might never have been a P. F. W. & C. R. These illustrations of Mr. Chas. M. Russell's remarkable traits of business character, are jotted down, in obedience to my promise, by one who knew him well, and who deeply prized his friendship; by his once fellow shopmate.

PARK.—Our city council at its last meeting did one of the most popular and long wished for acts, in behalf of this community, that has been proposed for a long time. A large number of petitioners, consisting of the principal business men among us, asked the council to take measures to complete a park, on the place now known as the public square, suggesting a general plan and probably some of the details toward its consummation. In response to this request the council have appointed a committee of three competent men to carry out the proposed improvement—viz: John E. McLain for three years, Wm. McClymonds for two years and G. P. Reed for one year, thus making it necessary to place in a new member each year.

The committee in whose hands this project is entrusted have the entire confidence of our citizens that the work proposed will be commenced promptly, economically managed, and thoroughly done, for they are practical business men who will not undertake anything of this kind unless they do it right. What the nature of the improvement will consist in, we have not been informed, and perhaps the committee has not yet fully decided, but some of our people would like to see one or more fountains, a soldier's memorial, gas posts, and many other details, all surrounded by a handsome, neat iron fence, and ornamented with beautiful trees. But of this we shall know more hereafter. It is expected that an engineer will be laying out the plan, perhaps this week, and work commenced immediately. The location is an admirable one; being on Mill street and between Main and Tremont streets, near the center of the city. If there is any defect about it, it is in consequence of the limited space; still there is room enough in which to exhibit both taste and skill.

At the same meeting of the council they also abolished the city board of improvements, and now the business of the board is carried out by the council. A board of health was also named, consisting of the mayor as chairman, and J. J. Crooks, and W. Clay, for one year; E. Childster and W. C. Richards, two years; and Drs. T. J. Reed and J. P. Barriek, three years.

We are to have a park! I small but beautiful. There will be statues, and fountains, and grass plots and easy seats beneath the trees, where we may sit and smoke or saunter with our lovers, or turn loose our young barbarians to play, or do any other thing that is comfortable and proper.

And now, oh, city fathers! while the mood is upon you, be further generous and let these streets of ours be lighted. He who owns the gas works and with whom you may contract is returned from Europe, and may be addressed at Philadelphia. His absence is no longer an excuse for darkness upon the streets of Massillon. Let us have light and at once. The posts can be erected and in readiness for gas; then, if we are not to have gas let us have oil or anything else that will burn and give us light; but by all means let us have light.

The ladies of the Presbyterian society would gratefully acknowledge the liberal patronage which they received at their social gathering at Mrs. C. P. Wilson's, from the friends of the other churches and the citizens in general. They would also express their obligations to the Massillon Silver Cornet Band for their enlivening music.

Work is progressing regularly on St. Paul's Lutheran Church, so that the probability is, that it may be ready for occupancy some time this fall. Somebody—we presume Rev. P. I. Buehl—is displaying much taste and devotion a great deal of labor in tastefully arranging the lawn in front of the church, and around it. It is laid out symmetrically and planted in evergreens and perennial flowers, so that hereafter the place will be one of the most beautiful localities in the city.

New papers are sprouting up in this part of the country with alarming frequency, especially on the P. & C. railway is this case. But a few weeks ago the Independent Register of Columbiana made its first appearance, and now another good looking, lively paper has just sprung up at Loudonville, O., another Independent, which starts off at a lively rate, being well supplied with interesting local news. And still another is reported as having just commenced at the little town of Shreve, called the Shreve Mirror. Verily there will soon be enough.

Some months ago Mr. J. H. Miller, sexton of the Methodist church found a muff and veil near that building, which he has taken good care of. The owner can have the same by describing the articles—at this office.

Mr. Penoyer has a very neat and simple device for canning fruits without sugar, which he is disposing of on fair terms. It is represented as efficient and practicable, by those who have used it.

We have a few of those little conveniences, railroad time tables, which can be had by calling at this office.

Some days ago the coldness of the atmosphere at times made the presence of fire a necessity in order to be comfortable, but last Saturday it began to heat up again, so that Sunday the air was intensely hot, and very quiet, scarcely a breeze stirring to cool the parching rays of the sun. But it makes everything grow.

Some of the boys keep up the base ball exercise, but it don't excite that interest that it did two or three years ago. Certain professional players are rambling over the country, getting all their advertising done for nothing, and making money out of the game. Almost every daily paper is puffing and blowing about the Red Stockings and other clubs performing wonderful feats.

Since his return from Europe Messrs. Warthorst & Co. are carrying on a heavy trade in removing stone from his large and extensive quarry, employing some sixty men. Large quantities of building stone are now daily sent to Pittsburgh and other points, and orders for dry, gundstones are constantly being filled for near and distant places. This quarry has established a good reputation wherever its products are known.

Court is still continued at Canton, and is likely to last for some time yet, as there is much business to be disposed of.

There is talk sometimes of having a bridge across the canal either on Plum or North st. The time will come when that will be a necessity.

There is a law or ordinance against fire crackers being used in towns and cities under certain penalties. It would be well to observe this regulation, otherwise there is a possibility of realizing trouble.

First Shipment of Wool.—I. B. Dangler, one of our first-class wool merchants, shipped on yesterday of his first buying, one hundred thousand pounds of first-class wool. (more or less).

"MOONLIGHT" PIC-NIC AT LAWRENCE.

It appears to be universally understood that the Temperance Pic-nic held near North Lawrence on the 4th inst., was a grand affair. And it seems that a certain few, (whose names we withhold) on account of their poor clothes and bad habits were ashamed to be seen in respectable company and did not attend. The thoughts of missing something good to eat has prompted them to make arrangements for a "moonlight" pic-nic on a little different plan. Consequently, according to arrangement, the party assembled by the roadside, remaining mute while the chief marshal displayed his gallantry by "sneaking" into the cellar of J. W. Hardgrove, Esq., and filling his basket with such luxuries as bread butter and milk, returned to the assembled heroes, and there together enjoyed the sumptuous repast. Who attribute their visiting Mr. Hardgrove's cellar to the fact a notice of the temperance pic-nic was published in the Wooster Democrat by "A Visitor," who asserts that Sister Hardgrove had the best cakes on the ground. Doubtless this party were readers of the Democrat and were looking for cakes.

Mr. Hardgrove wishes hereafter to have all that class of individuals understand that he is ready at any time to feed the hungry or help the distressed, but does not approve of this "sneaking business," and any person engaging in the same about his premises may hold themselves responsible for their own lives and limbs.

EDITOR INDEPENDENT:—SIR:—The great subject of internal improvements in Ohio and several other states, by enlarging and constructing canals, improvement of rivers, for the better and cheaper transportation of the various products of the country, and for general purposes of interchange of commodities seems to have taken a deep hold upon the minds of commercial and business men, to consider which, meetings are being held in various places. Among the improvements to be considered are the improvement of the Ohio river, an enlarged canal from Pittsburgh to Erie, the enlargement of the Miami and Erie canal from Toledo to Cincinnati, to say nothing of various improvements suggested in New York, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, &c. This may well be regarded an important subject for the consideration of the people of Ohio, for who can fail to appreciate the important and lasting benefits to result from such improvements. May we not hope that that not only such improvements as we have mentioned, will in due time be accomplished, but that the Ohio canal from Cleveland to Portsmouth may also come in for due consideration for its enlargement.

This subject is not claiming the attention of commercial and business men only, for it will be remembered that our legislature took the initiative step about two years since in ordering an examination of the Miami and Erie canal in view of its enlargement. Is it not wise that Ohio should hold her place among the first of the states in these works, and thus promote the best interests of her citizens as well as herself as a state.

Hon. Joseph Thompson of Stark county has been spending a few days with his relations and friends in New Lisbon. He came to Columbiana county in 1805, and remained here until some four or five years ago, when he removed to Stark county. He has always been a highly respected and influential citizen, and has filled several important and responsible offices. For some years he was sheriff of this county, and has served several terms in both branches of the state legislature, the last time being in the House from Stark two years ago, of which body he was the oldest member. He is a democrat, and if he should happen to get located in a Democratic district within the next twenty or thirty years, he will probably go to congress as he is only 76 years old.—Buckeye.

LONDON, June 20. An explosion occurred in one of the government mills at Waltham Abbey, near this city, and several persons were killed.

The death of Lord Arthur Clinton on Saturday created renewed interest in the case of the Boulton masqueraders. His dying declaration that he was innocent of the crimes imputed to him is fully verified by his attendants and companions who solemnly disclaim any criminal purpose in the woman personation folly.

The funeral of Mrs. Luby, mother of Fenian convicts, at Dublin, yesterday, was attended by crowds of people sympathizing with the Fenian movement.

Many people assembled yesterday to listen to the sermon of Dean Stanley, of Westminster Abbey, on the late Charles Dickens. Part of the last will of Dickens was read. In that he declines a monument, but rests his fame on his published works. He also urges his children to practice Christianity in a broad spirit not accepting narrow construction of any man or sect. The Dean closed with a glowing tribute to the illustrious dead.

BRUSSELS, June 20. The Independence Belge is certain that the clerical party will monopolize the new cabinet.

Decrees abolishing the death penalty and pensions appeared to-day, and the right to hold political meetings and the right of petition will be officially granted in a day or two.

PARIS, June 20.—The emperor is still indisposed, but there is nothing in his condition to excite alarm.

QUEENSTOWN, June 20.—Arrived, steamers Palmyra, Abyssinia and Colorado from New York.

The citizens of Jefferson, Columbiana, Starke, Portage, Wayne, Holmes, Summit and Cuyahoga counties are invited to join in an excursion to Cleveland, and on the lake, on Thursday, June 23, and arrangements have been made on a grand scale, to make the picnic one of the pleasantest that will take place during the season.

The common pleas court at Zanesville was adjourned last week on very singular grounds. A woman was in jail awaiting sentence, and was sent for, but the sheriff reported that she had not sufficient clothing in which to make her appearance, her mother having carried off her garments to wash them. The judge smiled and dismissed the court for the day.

The Great Medical Discovery!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS.

More than 500,000 persons bear testimony to their curative effects.

For Female Complaints, whether in old or young, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the turn of life, these tonic bitters have no equal. Send for a circular.

What are They?

They are a gentle purgative as well as a tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent, in relieving congestion of inflammation of the liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK.

Made of poor rum, whisky, proof spirits, and refuse liquor, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called tonics, appetizers, restorers, &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all alcoholic stimulant.

They are the great blood purifier and life giving principle, a perfect renovator and invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell.

$100 will be given for an incurable case, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poisons or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For inflammatory and chronic rheumatism, and gout, dyspepsia, or indigestion, bilious, remittent, and intermittent fevers, disease of the blood, liver, kidneys and bladder, the bitters have been most successful. Such diseases are caused by vitiated blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the digestive organs.

Cleanse and vitiate blood whenever you find it impure, bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions of sores, cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when you find it foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

Pin, tape, and other worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

In bilious, remittent and intermittent fevers, these bitters have no equal. For full directions read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

ADVICE.
Young men, don't get too foxy. If you happen to get in possession of a few dollars, act as you did before you got them. Don't swell up and bust. If you have a good share of brains you won't do this; you will remember that neither money, clothes or good looks make the man, and that worth is as often garbed in a ragged coat as it is in a broadcloth. Don't stand on hotel stools, dangling your watch chain, and talking boss. Better buy a book and learn to read without spelling your words. Those who load themselves with airs are the smallest kind of potatoes and few in a hill. A fat job often spoils young men of weak minds. They commence immediately to rag out, and take great pride in cultivating an aldermanic corporation and a sporting air. Sensible persons are always disgusted with such actions when they learn to notice them, which is very seldom. Reflect and turn over a new leaf.

DIDN'T CATCH THE TRAIN.
The most difficult things, says a cynical old back in the world for a woman to do is to get ready to go anywhere. And there is nothing a woman will resent quicker or more fiercely than an intimation that she may possibly miss the train. Our friend, Brayfogle, gives us an instance of this. Mr. Bray was supposed to take the ten o'clock train on the bee line, to visit some relatives in an interior town. Having suffered on previous occasions for injudicious suggestions, Bray thought that for once he would let things take their natural course. So he sipped his coffee and ate his eggs on toast, while Madame curled and powdered and danced attendance on the looking glass, and tied hair on the back of her head.

Then Bray sat by the stove for an hour and read the morning paper, while the madame still continued to get ready. At last just as he had reached the final paragraph, madame, tied her bonnet strings under her chin, took one long, lingering, loving look at the image reflected in the glass, and announced: "Well, my dear, I'm ready." "Ready for what?" asked Bray, in well affected astonishment. "To go to the depot, to be sure," said Mrs. Brayfogle, tartly. "Oh," said Bray, "I'd forgotten.—Well, madam," continued he, looking at his watch, "that train has been gone just thirty minutes. Just keep on your things, and you'll be ready for the train to-morrow morning."

The London Times finally concludes Captain Eyre killed the 112 men of the Ouedia.

In San Francisco a sign announces, "Clothing made and neatly repaired by Day & Knight."

A boy belonging to a primary school in New Hampshire assured his schoolmates that he would soon be able to indulge in his favorite sport on the river with the rest of them. Said he, "Father has gone to the war, and when he gets killed I am going to have his fishline."

It is vain to struggle against change and confusion the whole world is turned up side down every twenty four hours.

Many ways of happiness have been covered, but all agree there is none so pleasant as loving and being loved. A veteran was relating his exploits to a crowd of boys and mentioned having been in five engagements. "That's nothing," broke in a little fellow, "my sister Sarah has been engaged eleven times."

A young lady in Illinois, recently, killed a skunk with a butcher knife. She says the battle is not always to the strong.

With the president's signature the army bill at once goes into effect. The reduction of the army is to be completed by July 1, 1871, and after that time the standing army is not to number more than 30,000 men. Army officers employed in civil duties on leave of absence, such as ministers abroad, military secretaries of the president and others, are required to vacate their civil appointments or to resign their military commissions. By these and other provisions which we have heretofore explained, the bill will save over $1,000,000 annually.—Tribune.

What moral lesson does a weather cock on a church steeple continually inculcate? 'Tis vane to a spire.

Stranger—"Do they sell good whiskey at this hotel, mister?" Respectable looking man.—(But—) "Most decidedly, look't (hic) me, sir, for qu'r do't?"

True to the core—A good apple.

The man who got wise by eating sage cheese, has a brother who proposes to become skillful in the fashionable dances by dieting on hops.

A young coquette has just laid aside a novel in which she had become deeply interested. Soliloquizing, she said: "Yes love is a splendid thing, but one doesn't have time for it."

An ungallant congressman proposes to lay a tax of twenty-five per cent. on corsets. Since there is no tax on men getting tight, why shouldn't the ladies have the same privilege?

"I say, ma," exclaimed a little mixx of thirteen, do you know what the pyrotechnical remedy is for a crying baby? "Gracious goodness me, no; I never heard of such a thing." "Well, ma, it's rocket."

Eureka! Eureka!! Eureka!!!
What? Nature's sovereign remedy for healing the sick. Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery combines in harmony more of nature's most valuable medical properties than was ever before combined in one medicine. For the cure of all coughs, whether acute or lingering, it has proven its superiority over everything else. For torpid liver or biliousness and for constipation of the bowels, it is a never failing remedy. As a blood purifier for the cure of pimples, blotches, eruptions and all humors it is unequalled. Sold by druggists.

GIRLS, DON'T DO IT.
There is a practice quite prevalent among young ladies of the present day, which we are old-fashioned enough to consider very improper. We allude to their giving photographs of themselves to young men who are merely acquaintances. We consider it indecent in the highest degree. We are astonished that any young girl should hold herself so cheap as this. With an accepted lover it is of course all right. Even in that case the likeness should be returned, if the engagement should, by any misunderstanding, cease. If this little paragraph should meet the eye of any young girl who is about to give her photograph to a gentleman acquaintance, let her know that the remarks made by young men, when together concerning what is, perhaps, on her part, a piece of ignorance or impudence, would if she heard them, cause her cheeks to crimson with shame and anger. Were it a sister of ours—but that not being the case, we give this advice to anybody's sister who needs it, most anxiously desiring that she should at all times preserve her dignity and self respect.—Ex.

MRS. ALLEN'S
Hair Restorer & Zylobalsamum
Are so uniformly grateful and beneficial, that they are with justice called the natural strengtheners of the human hair. They are two entirely separate and distinct preparations, not to be used together at one time.
Mrs. Allen's Hair Restorer Never fails to satisfy the most refined and cultivated. A guarantee goes with every bottle, that it will quickly restore gray or white hair to its original youthful beauty, gloss and color; after its use a few times the hair will grow thicker and stronger. It will stop its falling and induce a healthy and luxuriant growth. It is an exquisite hair dressing, agreeable, harmless and healthy. Entirely different from most other preparations for the hair, its composition and ingredients are nourishing, giving life and vigor to the roots.
Mrs. Allen's Zylobalsamum This exquisite preparation is free from any sediment, and is a toilet treasure. The urgent want of a simple Hair Dressing, for the youth of both sexes, first induced the manufacture of the Zylobalsamum, and the sale of it is perfectly immense, not only in this country, but in Europe.
EXTRACTS FROM A FEW LETTERS.
"Your Zylobalsamum is used by every member, young and old, of our family, and we consider it invaluable. Should any gray hairs appear, we shall try your Hair Restorer, which we have very highly spoken of."
"Father and mother use your Hair Restorer, and are delighted with it. It soon restored their gray locks to their youthful color, but daughter and son still find in the Zylobalsamum all their hair requires."
From the Principal of one of our large Female Seminars: "Your Zylobalsamum has been used for many years by myself and family, and is the favorite among our young ladies."

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
This is the most thorough blood purifier yet discovered, and cures all humors from the first scrofula to a common eruption. Pimples and blotches on the face, and a scaly or rough skin, which are such annoying blemishes to many young persons, yield to the use of a few bottles of this wonderful medicine. From one to eight bottles cures salt rheum, eczema, scald head, ring worms, boils, scaly eruptions of the skin, scrofula sores, ulcers, and canker in the mouth and stomach. It is a pure medicinal extract of native roots and plants, combining in harmony nature's most sovereign curative properties, which God has instilled into the vegetable kingdom for healing the sick. It is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are languid, feeble, or nervous, have nervous apprehensions or fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of weakness, will find convincing evidence of its restorative power. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated and despondent, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly in the morning, irregular appetite and torpid bowels, you are suffering from torpid liver or biliousness. In many cases of liver complaint, only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. For the cure of habitual constipation of the bowels it is a never failing remedy, and those who have used it for this purpose are loud in its praise. In bronchitis, throat and lung diseases, it has produced many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed. Sold by druggists at $1 per bottle. Prepared at the Chemical Laboratory of R. V. PIERCE, M. D. Buffalo, N. Y. 63-2m
